The Northern Wyoming Daily News, a 5-day per week, family-owned newspaper located in Worland, Wyo., near the Bighorn Mountains, in the Rocky Mountain West is seeking a community-focused reporter interested in agricultural news and human interest stories. The ideal candidate will be creative, motivated and committed to excellent writing and accurate reporting. We're looking for someone who cares about community journalism. This job encompasses a variety of responsibilities - generating story ideas, writing, meeting deadlines, and multitasking. Candidate must have excellent communication skills and work well with a variety of personality types, both in the newsroom and in the local communities. Preferred requirements: Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience; strong grasp of AP Style; digital photography experience. The ideal candidate will also appreciate living in the West. Located in the county seat of Washakie County, Worland is located within the Big Horn Basin and along the Big Horn River in beautiful Northwestern Wyoming. We are fortunate to have easy access to the Bighorn Mountains to the east and the Wind River Mountains to the south including the Wind River Canyon. A community hub for the 5,487 people who reside in the city limits, Worland has a proud heritage of initiative, innovation and just plain grit with outdoor opportunities abound - hiking, fishing, downhill and cross country skiing, biking, snowshoeing, kayaking, ice climbing and more. Salary plus generous benefit package including health insurance, retirement and paid vacation. Submit a cover letter, resume and two examples of your best work to Karla Pomeroy at editor@wyodaily.com, or mail to 201 N. 8th St., Worland, WY 82401.
